TANZANIA: Government Condemns Rwandan Camp Massacre

EA2704193395 Dar es Salaam Radio Tanzania External Service in English 1600 GMT 27 Apr 95

[FBIS Transcribed Text] Tanzania has condemned the recent killings of thousands of Rwandan refugees in Kibeho camp, southwest Rwanda. About 2,000 refugees were massacred when the Tutsi-led Rwandan Patriotic Army troops opened fire on displaced Hutus in an attempt to close down the camp last week.

The statement, issued by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Relations, said the massacre holds back the effort to rebuild peace and unity in Rwanda. It said Tanzania has been angered by the killings, and urged the Rwandan Government to stop immediately the killings of innocent people.

The statement called on the Government of Rwanda to build peace in its land to enable the refugees, who were now living in refugee camps in Tanzania and Zaire, to return home.
